1/27/2018 Saturday 6:00 p.m.	Indiana Fire Association White Township Station 1555 Indian Springs Road Indiana	A Journey to Easter Island, Patagonia, and the Strait of Magellan — Cindy Rogers — Journey with Cindy from the most remote island in the world, Easter Island, through Chile and Argentina's Patagonia region to the Strait of Magellan. You will learn about the mystery of the nearly 900 monoliths called Moai created by the Rapa Nui people between 1250 and 1500, and see fjords, jutting mountains, steep cliffs, towering volcanoes, majestic glaciers, alpine landscapes, and windswept steppes. Please pre-register by calling 724-463-8636.
2/9/2018 Friday 7:00 p.m.	Blue Spruce Park Lodge	Western National Parks - Powerful Nature At Work — Rebecca Sterley — Over millions of years Earth's mantle plates collide, volcanoes spew, mountains heave up, rivers cut through rock, seas come and go, and mountains are reclaimed. It is a never-ending cycle of the power of nature at work. Highlights include Glen Canyon Dam, Lake Powell, Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, Zion, Yellowstone, and more.
2/10/2018 Saturday 10:30 a.m.	Blue Spruce Park Lakeside Center	Chili Walk to Warm Up the Winter Blues — Barb Hauge — Come to this kickoff event and learn about the Indiana County Decathlon with Barb Hauge. Join Barb, Ed Patterson and Ray Winstead for a winter walk, then warm up with a cup of chili. Earn your first stamp toward prizes. For information on all the Decathlon programs contact Barb Hauge at bhaug@upstreetarchitects.com or visit Indiana County Walking Decathlon on Facebook.
2/17/2018 Saturday 1:00 p.m.	Blue Spruce Park Lodge	Nature and Well-Being — Don Robertson — A walk in the woods or a walk in the mall? Does it make any difference? Recent research suggests that nature has special benefits ranging from stress inoculation to social cohesion. Creation and preservation of the natural environment is more than an aesthetic choice; it is an important component of well-being. In this lecture, the benefits of nature for psychological well-being, implications for planning, and the impact of loss of natural environment will be discussed.
2/23/2018 Friday 7:00 p.m.	Blue Spruce Park Lodge	Exploring the Highlands of Honduras in Search of New Species — Josiah Townsend — Join Joe for a virtual expedition through the tropical cloud forests of Honduras, where he leads you in search of undiscovered species of amphibians and reptiles. Trek through rural Latin America and learn what it takes to search out and discover new species in remote rainforests, and be among the first to hear about the most recent findings.
3/3/2018 Saturday 10:00 a.m.	Nature Works Farm 3741 Route 56 East Homer City, PA	Planning for a Year-Round Vegetable Garden — Cassandra &amp; Bob Madden — March is when most folks start feeling antsy about getting outdoors to work in their gardens. While the weather may not be cooperating, it's the perfect time to plan for a bountiful year-long harvest. In this workshop, we will discuss crop timing and succession planting for spring, summer, and fall crops. We will also cover season extension tips, techniques, and supplies that help keep the garden producing all year long. Participants are welcome to browse our greenhouses and seed-starting set-up.
3/10/2018 Saturday 2:00 p.m.	Kinter Farm Musser Road, Indiana	Maple Sugaring at Kinter Farm — Kinter Family — Our very popular maple sugaring event. Come to the farm to see and learn all about maple sugaring. It's fun and educational for the entire family. Call 724-463-8636 if you need directions.
3/11/2018 Sunday 2:00 p.m.	Kinter Farm Musser Road, Indiana	Maple Sugaring at Kinter Farm — Kinter Family — A second opportunity to enjoy this popular family event.
3/17/2018 Saturday 9:15 a.m.	Blue Spruce Park Lodge	Celtic Spirituality and Nature: A Nature Writing Workshop — Jan Woodard — Columnist Jan Woodard will discuss the role of nature in Celtic spirituality before and after the arrival of St. Patrick in Ireland and suggest guidelines for writing a piece of the participant's choice. Dress appropriately to step outside into the natural world before writing, weather permitting. Bring a pen and notebook. No previous writing experience is needed.
3/17/2018 Saturday 7:00 p.m.	Yellow Creek State Park Environmental Learning Center	Big Night for Salamanders — Lisa Meadows &amp; Ed Patterson — Cool, wet spring nights are a great time to see the salamander migration at Yellow Creek State Park. Come join us for a short presentation on our springtime salamanders and then drive over to the park to check out their migration to lay eggs in vernal pools. Please dress for the weather, wear waterproof shoes, and bring a flashlight. This program is for ages 10 & up. You must pre-register by emailing Lisa Meadows at limeadows@pa.gov .
3/24/2018 Saturday 10:00 a.m.	Yellow Creek State Park Environmental Learning Center	Introduction to Beekeeping — Nathan Williams — Beekeeping can be a fascinating hobby that can be started at anytime in your life. There are several things to consider before getting started. Join beekeeper Nathan Williams and learn about keeping bees, the equipment used, the products bees produce, and some of the current challenges involved in beekeeping.
3/31/2018 Saturday 8:00 a.m.	Yellow Creek State Park Office	Bird Walk - Todd Bird Club — Margaret &amp; Roger Higbee — Join the Todd Bird Club as they look for migrating waterfowl on Yellow Creek Lake. The wide variety of water birds makes this one of the top five birding destinations in PA. We will meet at the park office and drive to several locations near the lake for short walks. Bring your binoculars and bird books or use ours.
4/6/2018 Friday 7:00 p.m.	Yellow Creek State Park Environmental Learning Center	Creating Habitat for Wildlife: Kestrel Boxes — Patrick Snickles — Learn how to create suitable habitat for kestrels, some of PA's smallest falcons. Join Patrick Snickles, Information and Education Supervisor from the PA Game Commission, for a short discussion on kestrels, after which attendees will have the chance to build kestrel boxes for the park. Pre-registration required by emailing Lisa Meadows by April 1 at limeadows@pa.gov .
4/7/2018 Saturday 1:00 p.m.	Yellow Creek State Park Environmental Learning Center	Finding Your Inner Child - Adult Salamander Walk — Lisa Meadows &amp; Ed Patterson — Remember the fun you had looking for salamanders, snakes, and turtles as a kid? In this program you will have the opportunity to relive those days of your youth in a search of the wetlands and woodlands of Yellow Creek. This program is only for adults ages 18 and over. There will be a family salamander program later in the summer. Pre-register for the program by emailing Lisa by April 1 at limeadows@pa.gov .
